In your great mercy,

Graciously hear us.

God of peace and reconciliation,

bring an end to the sickness of the world,

especially violence, terrorism, war, and their causes.

In your great mercy,

Graciously hear us.

Holy God, Holy One,

your Son prayed that your people may be one.

May the gift of baptism be a power for healing the church's brokenness,

and bless all efforts for renewal and Christian unity.

In your great mercy,

Graciously hear us.

Loving God,

mend broken relationships and bring peace

to our families, our congregation, this community, and the world.

In your great mercy,

Graciously hear us.

God of healing and rest, help those whose hearts are heavy and weighed down by many troubles. Comfort their suffering, ease their distress, and carry their burdens, and comfort Jack's family. In your great mercy,

graciously hear us.

Eternal God, we thank you for all the faithful departed, especially Jack Fabry.

Heal the pain of all who grieve.

You are invited to attend a listening event concerning writing a social statement on Church, State, Civic Participation In Our Society.

Purpose:

A listening event is an opportunity for members of the task force or process builders like Rev. Sarras to hear informally from members of the ELCA regarding their insights and concerns around the issues of church, state, civic participation in our society. It also is a time for the task force to hear about hopes, fears, and expectations for the social statement they are to develop.

Background on social statements

Generally speaking, social statements are the most elaborate, and they provide broad frameworks to assist our church and its members in learning and discerning about social issues in the context of faith and life.

The ELCA Task Force on Church, State, and Civic Participation provides the focused leadership for the social statement process. It consists of about 18 members approved by the ELCA Church Council to serve for over four years. The work is carried out under the Theological Discernment Team in the Office of the Bishop. A number of ELCA staff and church council members serve as advisors. The task force meets to study the issues, hear reports from Listening Events, and in time will prepare a draft social statement for review across the church and then finalize a proposed statement that, ultimately, will be voted upon at the 2025 Churchwide Assembly.

Your participation is very much needed.
