Pastor's Report

He is not here; he has risen, just as he said.
Come and see the place where he lay
(Matthew 28:6).

O come, all you faithful, let us adore Christ's Holy Resurrection.

He is risen and not one dead remains in a tomb. He is risen! Mary Magdalene and her companion women became the first preachers of good news. They share the tidings of the resurrection and Jesus is calling us to tell everybody that he is risen and no longer among the dead. On the holy and great Sunday of Easter, we rejoice and celebrate the life-giving resurrection.

Rejoice, my friends, Christ is risen, and he lives among us. Christ's resurrection is what gathers us on every Sunday. Christ's resurrection motivates us to carry out Christ salvation mission to the world. The cross is meaningless without the resurrection. Without the resurrection, there is no hope, no praises, and life is meaningless.

Jesus' resurrection from the dead reminds us of God's sovereignty over life and death. Jesus deserves to bow down to his Holy Resurrection and worship him alone.

Jesus Christ is risen from the dead tumbling down death by death and upon those in the tombs bestowing life. To him alone belongs glory and might unto ages of ages. Amen

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Dr. Niveen Sarras

On March 20 the parking lot was becoming a skating rink, so I informed the council to be careful coming that evening. Thank you to the council members who brought salt to help melt a pathway.

Jerry Nickolai spent a whole day pumping water out of the lot because the drain was froze and the frozen water was now a pond! He also got the ice melted. Thanks, Jerry, for making the parking lot safe.

Thank you to everyone who purchased an Easter flower to beautify the sanctuary Easter Morning. You may take your plant(s) home after service.

REIMAGINING CHURCH 2018-2019

Our pilot year of Reimagining Church has provided a rich learning experience of us - exciting and Spirit-filled! We are eager for a second cycle of Reimagining Church to get underway beginning in September 2018!

Registration of Action Teams is due June 15, 2018

Reimagining Church is a Spirit-led journey for learning how to better live into new ways of being church in a rapidly changing world. After defining a significant missional challenge facing their congregation, lay teams from participating congregations will engage in small-scale experiments grown out of a process grounded in the spiritual practices of listening, discernment, and reflections.

Web-based information meetings to learn more about the process will be Tuesday, April 24 at 6:30 pm and Tuesday, May 22 at 6:30 pm.

Contact Pastor Amy Engebose at amy.engebose@ecsw.org to receive a participation link!

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

God's work. Our hands.

Feb. 26, 2018

Today, I join our partner church, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (ELCJHL), in expressing solidarity with the churches in Jerusalem to defend their properties and protect the Christian presence in the Holy Land. A few weeks ago, based on a new legal opinion, Jerusalem began collecting property taxes from churches despite an agreement with Israel to exempt them (as they had also been when the city was previously under Jordanian, British and Ottoman control). While the city's action can be seen partially as a financial dispute with the central government, it is noteworthy that this tax collection is taking place alongside a proposal in the Knesset to confiscate church-owned land. The net effect has been to attempt to undermine the historic status quo in Jerusalem and mount increased pressure on the Christian community and its ministries in the Holy Land.

In response to these moves, the churches in charge of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre – the Armenian Apostolic (Orthodox) Church, the Greek Orthodox Church and the Catholic Custody of the Holy Land – on Feb. 25 closed the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem in protest. Today, the ELCJHL, in conjunction with the German Lutheran Church, decided to close Church of the Redeemer and its tower for one day in solidarity.

The ELCJHL has asked us to stand with them and the Christian community and pray for them during this time of trial. I will do so and ask members, congregations and synods of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to join me. We will continue to be in conversation with our partners in Jerusalem as this situation further develops.

God's peace,

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton
Presiding Bishop

Embracing Stewardship

How to put stewardship at the HEART of your congregation's LIFE

April 28 at 8:30 am - 3:00 pm

How to put stewardship at the HEART of your Congregation's LIFE

You're invited! Embracing Stewardship is an outstanding stewardship event for all congregations.

Rev. Chick Lane and Grace Duddy Pomroy will articulate what stewardship means to them and explore a few of the pathways your congregation can follow to deepen your members' understanding of themselves as stewards of God's abundance. Together they bring a multi-generational and "diverse approach" to their discussion on Stewardship. Coming from two generations, they are mindful of the generational perspective and the worlds in which congregations live. Both Chick and Grace have a shared conviction that stewardship belongs at the heart of each individual and every congregation!

Register by April 6 to receive a free copy of Embracing Stewardship: How to put stewardship at the heart of your congregation's life at the event.

Final registration deadline April 13th. Books will be available for purchase at the event.

Venue: Trinity Lutheran Church, 709 W. Beckert Road, New London, WI

Share your story at final 'Circles of Faith' dialogue April 15

CIRCLESofFAITH

WIPPS invites you to meet other community members to talk about experiences with faith and interfaith relations at the final "Circles of Faith" dialogue on Sunday, April 15, from 2-3:30 p.m. at Northcentral Technical College.

Members of different religions, in a small-group setting, will share their personal experiences, stories and traditions of their faith with the group, encouraging discourse on the commonalities of religion.

Trained facilitators and religious leaders will lead these small groups and introduce discussion questions to foster open dialogue across faiths.

The remaining dialogue will focus on this topic:

- Sunday, April 15 – Tell a story about a positive experience with someone of a different faith or belief tradition.

Each small-group discussion will encourage individual story telling, followed by a larger group dialogue that brings together and highlights the group discussions. The program is free and open to the public, and members of all beliefs are encouraged to attend.

If you have any questions, contact Julie Bunczak, WIPPS program manager, at julie.bunczak@uwc.edu or 715-261-6234.

Circles of Faith, an ongoing project of the Wisconsin Institute for Public Policy and Service (WIPPS), is made possible through a grant from the Wisconsin Humanities Council.

The handbells choir enjoyed playing for the church this last year. You don't need to be musically talented just able to count 1-2-3-4. See Joanne Diestelhorst if you are interested in joining next fall.

We will perform on Easter Sunday and April 22.
Our last performance will in May.

What is a Ruby's Pop-Up Pantry? Great question! Ruby's Pantry delivers food to locations across Wisconsin and Minnesota once each month where guests donate $20 and receive an abundance of food (approximately $150 in value and 90-100 lbs) ranging from fresh produce, eggs, milk, bread, meats, cheese and assorted other groceries.

The Wausau location will be held at the New Hope Community Church from 5:30-7:00pm on the 1st Tuesday of every month (starting 4/3). There are no income or residency requirements and it is a simple $20 cash donation. We ask guests to bring 2 totes/baskets to pick up their food share. We are hoping to spread the word to all residents of the Wausau area especially those looking to help their grocery budget get extended each month or those in need of a little extra each month.

The New Hope location is looking for anyone interested in volunteering on their distribution day. Volunteer time ranges anywhere from 1-3 hours – unloading the truck, setting up the distribution, handing out food, check in of guests, prayer support and clean up.
