Pastor's Report

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life (John 3:16).

We are starting another Lenten journey. It is interesting to start it on Valentine's Day. The last time we had Ash Wednesday on Valentine's Day was in 1945. On Ash Wednesday, we put ashes on our forehead to remind ourselves that we are dust and to dust, we shall return. On that day, we come to the Lord with confession, repentance, and fasting. This year, Ash Wednesday arrives on Valentine's Day as God is reminding us of God's sincere love in spite of our sins.

I asked myself whether it is appropriate to celebrate Valentine's Day on the same day I observe Ash Wednesday. Can I fast and confess my sins and attend Valentine's Day parties? Do I need to celebrate Valentine's Day on another day and keep Ash Wednesday solemn? Martin Luther encourages us to confess our sins and to repent daily not only on Ash Wednesday. Luther believes that the entire life of believers should be repentance. Ash Wednesday is not observed in all Christian traditions. For example, the Orthodox Church does not observe Ash Wednesday that because they also believe that we are called to live the life of daily repentance.

Jesus Christ teaches us to love one another as he loved us (John 15:12). Our faith teaches us to express our love toward our neighbor every day, not only on Valentine's Day. We are called to repent every day and to love every day. Repentance and love are fundamental to our Christian life. Since Valentine's Day and Ash Wednesday will fall on the same day, I encourage you not only to confess your sins, repent and turn to God, but also to ask for forgiveness of the neighbor you have wronged, which would be an act of love.

We have a unique opportunity this year to express our love toward God and our neighbor through confession and repentance. God loves us so much so that God sent God's only son to die on the cross for us. This love of God offers forgiveness when you repent. So be glad and rejoice in Ash Wednesday.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Dr. Niveen Sarras

Lenten Bible Study: The Book of Revelation

The book of Revelation has been mysterious, confusing, and misunderstood for centuries. Martin Luther did not want this book to be part of our Canon, but later he changed his mind.

Our evangelical neighbors (born again movement) pay lots of attention to the book of Revelation, particularly the description of “rapture.” The theology of rapture is very fundamental for their theology. They believe that Jesus Christ will snatch away in an instant faithful Christians up into heaven. Those left behind on earth will suffer and experience terrifying tribulations for seven years. Then comes “Armageddon,” where the Book of Revelation predicts a mighty, bloody confrontation between Jesus and Satan outside Jerusalem on the plain of Armageddon, and then Jesus will come again to reign for one thousand years, followed by eternity. Our fundamentalist neighbors picture Jesus with a sword killing all those who disagree with him. They focus on God’s judgment and anger. This theology, unfortunately, is connected to the political and financial support for the State of Israel and rebuilding the Jewish Temple with a purpose to hasten the second coming of Christ.

Lutherans disagree with the theology of rapture. Rev. Dr. Barbara Rossing, ordained in ELCA and teaches at Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago, writes a well-known book called “The Rapture Exposed: The Message of Hope in the Book of Revelation.” She argues against the theology of the rapture and stresses that the book of Revelation shows God coming to heal the world, not to kill millions of people. The purpose of the book of Revelation is to bring hope and comfort to the Christian community who experienced persecution when the book was written.

You are invited to study the book of Revelation during Lent. We will meet three times at 10:30 AM in Emmaus Room after worship service on Sunday on the following days: February 18, March 4 and 18.

I encourage you to read the book of Revelation. I also encourage you to buy “The Rapture Exposed” by Barbara Rossing.

Faithful Innovation in an Uncertain World

2018 Winter Forum with
The Rev. Dwight Zscheile, PH.D.
March 2-3
The United Methodist Church
600 Wilshire Ave, Stevens Point

Dwight Zscheile is associate professor of congregational mission and leadership at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, MN and a consultant with churches and other non-profit organizations. He also serves part-time as associate priest at St Matthew's Episcopal Church in St. Paul. Dwight's experience growing up in a secular home in CA has shaped his commitment to helping the church cultivate.

Taking one page from the Bible and another from Silicon Valley, priest and scholar Dwight brings theological insights together with cutting-edge thinking on organizational innovation to help churches flourish in a time of profound uncertainty and spiritual opportunity. He answers urgent and practical questions around how churches become agile and adaptive to meet cultural changes.

Early bird registration is needed before February 11th. Contact Pastor Niveen if interested in attending or if you have questions.

Interfaith Dialogue Opportunity

The Circles of Faith Dialogues will offer members of the Wausau area community the opportunity to share stories and engage in conversations with people of diverse religious backgrounds. Members of all religions are invited to share their personal faith experiences within a small group setting. The dialogues aim to encourage discussion on the commonalities and unique qualities of different religious traditions. Trained facilitators will lead the groups and introduce discussion questions to foster open dialogue across faiths. The events will be held in the NTC cafeteria, from 2:00 - 3:30pm, on three Sunday afternoons. Pastor Niveen will be one of the facilitators.

Dates and topics for the series are:

February 11 – Describe an experience with religion that changed you.

March 11 – Tell a story about a time when you felt misunderstood or misrepresented because of the perceptions of your beliefs.

April 15 – Tell a story about a positive experience with someone of a different faith or belief tradition.

To register and for questions, please visit the "Events" page at www.wipps.org.

* Thank you Al Solomonson and everyone who shovels after the snow.

* Thank you Judy Nickolai and Joanne Diestelhorst for stapling the telephone directory and semi-annual meeting booklets.

* The Wausau Golden K Kiwanis Club expresses its gratitude for the many calendars donated by members of Immanuel Lutheran. The calendars are much appreciated by residents of these homes. Thank You!

* Thank you for your generous gift of 573 pounds of food to help our neighbors in need. For 28 years we've worked with the community to assist those needing basic resources. The Neighbors' Place is a unique nonprofit, because we're unaffiliated with any state or national organization. This gives us the ability to respond quickly to local needs as they arise.

In 2016:

We distributed 1,503,272 lbs of food.

An average of 945 families received groceries each week.

The need for food assistance increased by 15.3%.

The busiest months for food assistance were October & November

75 volunteers are needed each week to successfully serve guests.

Immanuel Quilters started assembling, tying and sewing quilts and will continue Thursday mornings till mid-May. These quilts are donated to Lutheran World Relief for distribution to refugees and others in need throughout the world. Tops for the quilts are made from fabric remnants and the quilt backs are gently used sheets or similar fabric. Fiber fill is purchased for the middle layer. Assembling the quilts is done in the workroom on the second floor of the education wing. Some quilters work at home cutting and sewing together squares for the quilt tops. Donation of supplies are welcome. In addition to fabric or sheets (all sizes), yarn for tying, sewing thread, and sewing machine needles are also needed. Donations of money are used to purchase the quilt filler.

The Quilters welcome new members. Join us Thursday mornings for fellowship and helping with this LWR project. We meet from about 9 am—11:30 am and always have time for a coffee break.
